Act Responsibly

HUMAN RIGHTS
- Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and
- Principle 2: Make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

LABOUR
- Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining;
- Principle 4: The elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour;
- Principle 5: The effective abolition of child labour; and
- Principle 6: The elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.

ENVIRONMENT
- Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges;
- Principle 8: Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and
- Principle 9: Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.

ANTI-CORRUPTION
- Principle 10: Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.

Agenda

1. Overview of the Modern Slavery Act (MSA)

2. Who is required to produce an MSA statement?

3. How should a company address modern slavery in its business and supply chains?

4. Q & A
Overview of the MSA
What is the MSA?

Section 54: obligation to report on “steps taken during the financial year to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any of its supply chains or in any part of its own business, or a statement that it is taking no such steps”

"It is certainly not acceptable for organisations to put profit above the welfare and wellbeing of its employees and those working on its behalf.

Rt Hon Theresa May MP, Foreward to the Transparency in Supply Chains guidance issued by the MoJ"
Background

UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
• Influential in development of MSA
• Requires businesses to:
  - conduct due diligence of business operations and supply chains worldwide
  - take steps to mitigate any impact on human rights linked to business operations
  - establish processes for on-going monitoring and compliance

Other human rights reporting obligations
• California Transparency in Supply Chains Act 2010
• Directive 2014/95/EU
What is modern slavery?

Palermo Protocol

ACT
(what is done)
- Recruitment
- Transportation
- Harbouring
- Receipt
(of persons)

MEANS
(how it is done)
- Threat or use of force
- Coercion
- Abduction
- Fraud
- Deception
- Abuse of power or vulnerability
- Giving payments or benefits to a person in control of a victim

PURPOSE
(why it is done)
- Exploitation (Including:
- Prostitution of others
- Sexual exploitation
- Forced labour
- Slavery or similar practices
- Removal of organs
- Other types of exploitation)
What is modern slavery?

“Forced labour”

ILO definition:

“work or service which is exacted from any person under the menace of any penalty and for which the said person has not offered himself voluntarily

ILO indicators of forced labour:

1. Abuse of vulnerability
2. Deception
3. Restriction of movement
4. Isolation
5. Physical and sexual violence
6. Intimidation and threats
7. Retention of identity documents
8. Withholding of wages
9. Debt bondage
10. Abusive working and living conditions
11. Excessive overtime
ILO forced labour estimates

ILO estimates 21m people in forced labour
How is modern slavery relevant to global businesses?

National Contact Points

- Many OECD countries, including the UK, several EU Member States, the US and Canada, have established National Contact Points (NCPs)

- Can hear complaints brought by individuals or NGOs against private enterprises regarding human rights violations

Penalties

- Formal censure from NCP

- Reputational harm

- Potential litigation
Who is required to produce an MSA statement?
s. 54 MSA– the four stage test

1. Commercial organisation?

2. Supplies goods or services?

3. Total annual turnover of £36m or more?

4. Carries on a business, or part of a business, in the UK?
“Carries on a business, or part of a business, in the UK”? Not defined in the MSA and not yet considered by the courts

Home Office Guidance
- Courts final arbiter
- Common sense approach
- Unlikely to be caught if no “demonstrable business presence” in the UK

Courts’ interpretation of similar phases
- “Fact-intensive question”
- Foreign entities carrying on business in the UK?
- “Part” of a business?
Reporting considerations

Entity-by-entity?

Group-wide?

Reputational considerations

Pressure from customers

It is simply not acceptable for organisations to say, in the twenty-first century, that they did not know.

Rt Hon Theresa May MP,
Foreward to the Transparency in Supply Chains guidance issued by the MoJ
Content of the MSA statement

How should companies address modern slavery issues in their business and supply chains?
s. 54(5) MSA – the statement

s. 54(5) MSA

An organisation’s slavery and human trafficking statement may include information about—

(a) the organisation’s structure, its business and its supply chains;

(b) its policies in relation to slavery and human trafficking;

(c) its due diligence processes in relation to slavery and human trafficking in its business and supply chains;

(d) the parts of its business and supply chains where there is a risk of slavery and human trafficking taking place, and the steps it has taken to assess and manage that risk;

(e) its effectiveness in ensuring that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in its business or supply chains, measured against such performance indicators as it considers appropriate;

(f) the training about slavery and human trafficking available to its staff.

Home Office Guidance

- UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights
Practical steps towards compliance
Three steps towards UNGP compliance

1. Human rights due diligence
2. Remediation
3. On-going compliance
Human Rights due diligence

Phase I: Heat mapping the risk

Focus on key risk areas:
1. High-risk sectors
2. High-risk locations
3. Supply chain risks

Phase II: Detailed due diligence

Phase III: Focused investigations
Amnesty International say batteries used in mobile phones may contain cobalt mined by minors

- Technology firms accused of failing to adequately trace the source metals
- They may have unknowingly been cobalt from mines that use child labour
- Claims made in Amnesty International and African Resources Watch report

Exposed: Child labour behind smart phone and electric car batteries
Principle 19 UNGP:

Appropriate action will vary according to:

(i) Whether the business enterprise causes or contributes to an adverse impact, or whether it is involved solely because the impact is directly linked to its operations, products or services by a business relationship;

(ii) The extent of its leverage in addressing the adverse impact
Remediation

Appropriate action?

Will depend on:

- Severity of issue
- How crucial the supplier relationship is to the company
- Whether terminating the supplier relationship would adversely affect human rights

Contractual protection in supplier contacts?

Termination of supplier relationships in certain circumstances?
On-going compliance

Embedding change through internal policies and procedures
