

Global Compact LEAD Working Group Meeting
“Co-creating New Forms of UN-Business Partnerships:
Increasing Scale and Impact”

Friday, January 28th 2011

11:15-11:55

Waldhotel Davos, Buolstrasse 3, 7270 Davos Platz

Co-chairs:

Paul Polman, Chief Executive Officer, Unilever &
Georg Kell, Executive Director, UN Global Compact

11.00 Coffee & Networking

The session will begin promptly at 11:15.

11.15 Welcoming Remarks

The purpose of the working group and the objectives of the meeting.

- Paul Polman, Chief Executive Officer, Unilever

11.18 Presentation by Dalberg Global Development Advisors

Based on research and interviews with companies and UN entities, Dalberg will present a few priority issues for consideration.

- Sonila Cook, Partner, Dalberg Global Development Advisors

11.21 Moderated Discussion and Summary

Participants will be asked for their views on the following question:

“What do the UN and businesses need to do differently to achieve transformational partnerships which result in scaled and sustainable impact? What should be the priority areas for the work of this group?”

Given the time constraint and in order to facilitate discussion, participants are asked not to exceed 1 minute when making an intervention.

- Moderated by Jane Nelson, Senior Fellow and Director of Corporate Social Responsibility Initiative, Harvard University

11.52 Concluding Remarks

Next steps for the working group.

- Georg Kell, Executive Director, UN Global Compact Office

11.55 End of Session