Global Compact LEAD Luncheon in Davos

Designing the Post-2015 Architecture: The Leadership Agenda

25 January 2013, 12:00–14:00

Waldhotel Davos, Buolstrasse 3, 7270 Davos Platz, Switzerland

The Global Compact LEAD Luncheon --Chaired by UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon, and co-hosted with the Swiss Government and the Global Compact Local Network Switzerland-- will mark a new beginning of Global Compact LEAD following the two year pilot phase.

The Luncheon will provide an opportunity for business leaders to engage in open and interactive discussions with UN leadership on the post-2015 global development agenda. Discussions will address the important role that CEOs of LEAD companies can play in designing a new generation of sustainable development goals and shaping the global architecture of institutions and initiatives required to more effectively integrate corporate sustainability as a transformative force.
