

UN Global Compact LEADERS SUMMIT 2017 21 September | New York Hilton Midtown

MADS NIPPER

Born in 1966, Mads Nipper started his career from an educational background as MSc in Business Administration from Aarhus University 1991. Before joining Grundfos, Mads Nipper had a long career (1991 – 2014) in the Lego Group, starting as media consultant and with several managerial positions until his last position as Chief Marketing Officer and member of Group Management (2011-2014).

August 2014, Mads was appointed Group President and CEO of Grundfos.

Mads is member of the Board of Directors at B&O and the Tulip Food Company, adjunct professor at the Design School Kolding, commissioner in the Water Resources Group, Member of the General Council of the Confederation of Danish Industry and the Committee on Business Policy, and Board member of the Federation of Employers in the Manufacturing Industry. Mads Nipper has also been appointed by the Danish Government to represent Denmark in the Business and Sustainable Development Commission.

Connect with Mads at
#GCLeadersSummit!

@NipperMads

Session:
Scaling Up Solutions