Logistical Information

22 June: United Nations Headquarters
46th Street and 1st Avenue, New York, New York 10017

The Opening Session of the Leaders Summit will be held in the United Nations General Assembly Hall from 15:00 – 17:00.

Access to United Nations Headquarters for Non-UN Participants:
Confirmed Leaders Summit participants are asked to arrive at the Visitors’ Entrance of UN Headquarters, on 46th Street and 1st Avenue, by 13:30 to collect grounds passes and ensure adequate time to clear security. All confirmed participants must carry Government-issued photo identification (driver’s license or passport). Please note that grounds passes will be issued only to confirmed Leaders Summit participants, and not to additional staff or accompanying persons. UN Security will not grant any exceptions.

Participants will be escorted by UN staff on foot from the Visitors’ Entrance through security checkpoints and into UN Headquarters, to the General Assembly Hall. Please contact leaderssummit@unglobalcompact.org by 17 June if you have a physical disability that will prevent you from walking a moderate distance. There will be open seating in the General Assembly Hall, and participants are advised to take their seats immediately upon entering.

Access to the General Assembly Hall for UN Grounds Pass Holders:
Leaders Summit participants that are UN Grounds Pass holders are asked to check in with UN Global Compact staff at the registration desk in the General Assembly building lobby, next to the information desk. Doors to the General Assembly Hall will open at 13:30 and the programme will begin at 15:00 sharp. Participants are advised to arrive early to take their seats.

23 June: Marriott Marquis, Times Square
1535 Broadway, New York, New York 10036

The second day of the Leaders Summit will be held at the Marriott Marquis Hotel, located at 1535 Broadway, New York, New York 10036, from 9:00 – 16:00. The main entrance of the hotel is on West 46th Street, in between 7th and 8th Avenues.

Participants are asked to arrive between 7:00 and 8:00, and take the elevators or escalators up to the 6th Floor of the hotel. A light breakfast will be served and all participants will be required to check in at the registration desk to receive their name badges. The programme will begin at 9:00 sharp.
Programme
Please click here to view a detailed Leaders Summit programme.

Languages and Interpretation
English is the working language of the Leaders Summit. Simultaneous translation will be provided for participants into Spanish and Mandarin on both 22 and 23 June in the plenary sessions.

Dress Code
Participants are encouraged to wear business attire.

Transportation
UN Headquarters and the Marriott Marquis Hotel are both easily accessible by public transit. We recommend using the MTA Trip Planner to figure out the best way to reach the venues from the location where you are staying. While we encourage all participants to utilize public transportation, taxicabs and other car services such as Uber are also always available to take you from point A to point B in New York City.

For further information on New York City including climate, attractions and more, please visit our Frequently Asked Questions page.

Mobile App
Connect with other Leaders Summit participants, session facilitators and speakers, and receive up-to-the-minute updates on the programme by downloading our mobile app. Click here for step-by-step instructions on how to do so.

Communications Opportunities
Follow @globalcompact and join the conversation using #GCLeadersSummit. Download the social media toolkit here for links, visuals, and more.